

The background of the entire cover is a large, embossed eagle. The eagle's wings are spread wide, with the feathers on the wings and tail created through a series of fine, wavy lines. The eagle's head is turned to the left, and its beak is pointed. The year '63 is embossed in the center of the eagle's chest.

Mary Ellen Wilson

June 1891

To Mary Ellen
my firstborn knothead
your weary mother

Dearest Mary Ellen,
As I begin to write I go all the way back to that first meeting we attended in March of '59. I'll never forget how frightened I was that there would be no one there my own age who would be so close to me as Deborah was. I was very happy that first night when we stood around the Kingdom Hall talking about how our parents tried to hide their age. AA! After that week had the privilege of spending my first night with you. How I must have bored you telling you about "in bed the talker" all night. AA! I loved that first weekend with you, hiking, and taking in all the beauty of the country which I had never seen in California. I remember many things about that home, the creek at the bottom we saw in, the woods we hiked in for hours and last but not least the house itself in which I spent many happy hours. Remember the time we went to Grand River and I hurt you feelings so badly. But although I hurt you, we still had fun. That day, especially, when we went to Nowata Dam and begged your father into getting a coke. Remember how sick we got from eating candy and stackerjacks for breakfast? It's spent many happy hours at that house and then you moved. At your new home we found new places to have fun. For instance the old mud hole, you and Betty tricked me into. We had more fun jumping in past our knees and feeling the mud. I had more fun. Afterward we went swimming and Betty's shorts managed to get wet so we couldn't go home till we dried out. AA! It was while you lived in this same house that we were baptized in '61, June 3rd. Well you've moved again and though we haven't the old creek, and mud hole will still have fun. Remember so many like the old where had together. You know what if I had the same four years to live over I'd want nothing better than to live over it. And now I have no more to say so I'd better close. To the best friend a girl ever had better girl who's been closer than a sister to me and a love always to a wonderful girl.

Mary

Senior Class Will

We, the Seniors of 1963, being of sound mind do hereby will our special individual talents to the various members of the Senior High School:

I, Ronnie Wallis, will my insoles to Jimmy Montgomery.

I, Betty Hargis, will a certain stare to Paula Speck.

I, Roy Chambers, will all my car trouble to Danny Rhine.

I, Sharyn Sortore, will my love for slam books to Paula Speck.

I, Genna Hilton, will my quiet ways to Ruthie Womack.

I, Carolyn Nixon, will my reckless driving and freckles to Sheila Naro.

I, Loretta Rice, will my excess weight to Patty Gardner.

I, Linda Reed, will my ability to finish school to anyone who gets married as a Junior.

I, Mary Ann Wilhite, will my ability to go with a certain Sequoyah boy to Ruthie Womack. (Ruth, they're really not so bad).

I, Elizabeth McClurg, will my ability to bowl on certain nights to Linda Montgomery.

I, Sue Roberts, will my ability to get "F" in shorthand to next year's shorthand class.

I, Bill Shelton, will my ability to get along with brothers to Ray Chambers.

I, Richard Montgomery, will my ability to keep out of trouble to Gary Casey.

I, Ronald Busby, will my good looks to Thomas Egbert.

I, Marvin Hedgpath, will my ability to be tardy to Ray Chambers.

I, Darrell Dennis, will my sharp tennis shoes to that poor little "ole" O. M. A. kid.

I, Pat Smith, will my ability to fall out of love to Carol Pool.

I, Nancy Wilson, will my ability to stay away from a certain O. M. A. blond headed boy to Linda Montgomery.
